Great Republican Demonstration

CITY HALL,

Tuesday Evening, Oct. 26th, at 8 o'clock, to be addressed by

HON. WM. P. FRYE.

Music by CHANDLER'S BAND.

It is hoped that the Republicans of Portland will turn out in great numbers, to hear one of the best speeches in the country.

Galleries only reserved for Ladies.

Fun all around was in order last evening, as well as Fun on the Bristol.

Jarrett & Rice's Combination is the name of another one of the many combinations that are doing the country this season.

Amusements were provided, consisting of an art gallery, fish pond and post office. After all had partaken of supper, the balance of the evening was spent in the amusement of the illumination of the city.

The principal members of the company are

Mr. John F. Sheridan, Miss Kate Castleton,

Miss Agnes Hallcock, Miss Marian Fiske and

Mr. William Courtwright. As the Widow

Olivia from Tipperary, Mrs. S. H. Jones, comes out strong in the first act, and in the saloon scene, in the second act, Mr. Richard Waldron made a very good Captain Cranberry. Miss Castleton and Miss Hallcock as Nora and Dora, the daughters of Mr. O'Brien, were of course well received. During the second act the concert scene gave the opportunity for the introduction of special features, all of which were well received, and in several instances encored. During the action of the second act the following were introduced—Grand Musical, dramatic, operatic, terpsichorean and nonsensical diversities; Potpourri chorography; and a variety of songs.

Figures of the song, from the opera "Carmen" barbarous scene, "Claw'd Mahomet and Leah's redemption from the hands of the barbarous opera, "The Pies-Plates of Penn's Annie; Capt. Starch and Mlle. Almoe-Lia, in a little flirtation and diet; the Elvira and Second Degree's Full Moon Union; the Bristol's

Douglas Band, in their novel Turkish reverille, original with this company, and was one of the best things in the whole entertainment.
